

Postgraduate Training Program

Stipends Available

to qualified candidates for participating in the IIGP training program.

The Institute for Individual and Group Psychotherapy recognizes that it takes commitment and dedication to train in our profession. We see the therapist as the central instrument in successful therapy, so our program involves personal therapy as well as clinical experiences and theoretical understanding. Since our initial training requires up to six hours per week, some stipends are available to offset the loss of income during training. Our current model offers the following financial incentives to serious students:

Introductory Program for Beginning IIGP Students

1 year
$400/month

Trainee Program for Intermediate Level IIGP Students

2 years
$500/month

Fellowship Program for Advanced IIGP Students

$750/month
